Dakota Lester

Orchard Park, New York, United States

dakotale@buffalo.edu

linkedin.com/in/dakotale

Summary

An interest of software development/data analysis was originally a hobby that turned into a career.

Will bring the required skills, energy, and commitment to your organization.

Ability to keep calm under pressure.

Maintained a honorable GPA between two universities and working part time.

Experience

🚄 Software Developer

National Air Cargo, Inc.

- Jul 2018 Present (3 years 11 months +)
- Web and SQL development plus design extract, transform, and load (ETL) solutions, transforming and migrating source data for efficient querying and analysis.
- Build high performance SQL Server Integration Services (SSIS) packages from flat files for data warehousing.
- Resolving complex situation with expansive impact on the business such as revamping the crew payroll system from Access to SQL 2016, saving hundreds of thousands annually.
- Development and Implementation of Electronic Data Interchange (EDI) standards required for Service/ Operational Level Agreements.
- Acquainted with Microsoft Azure IaaS/PaaS SQL, Synapse, DevOps, and Active Directory.
- Conversion of web/client applications from VS 2005 to 2017.
- Development of web applications in .NET Webforms, MVC, and Core frameworks.

• Development and Implementation of Key Performance Indicators and Dashboards in accordance of the Operational Level Agreements.

• Development and Implementation of PowerShell and Python scripts for automating GET/POST functionality on a scheduled basis.

IT Consultant

Enterprise Infrastructure Services

Aug 2015 - Jun 2018 (2 years 11 months)

Install and maintain a variety of software and hardware for desktops. Provide mainstream support for approximately 2000+ end users. Generate documentation used to describe how processes can be easily understandable. Use of software including; System Center Configuration Manager 2012 and Infoblox. Experience with domain name requests including IPv4, IPv6, MAC Addresses, and Canonical Names. Other daily responsibilities included file/email restores, active directory requests and end-user troubleshooting.

😼 Undergraduate Teaching Assistant

University at Buffalo Jan 2017 - May 2017 (5 months) An Undergraduate Teaching Assistant for "Intro to Computer Science I", helping around 300 students with the understanding of concepts related to Java, Javascript, and Algorithms. I hold office hours for students who wish to ask for help related to the understanding of concepts, homework, and projects associated with the course.

Education

😼 University at Buffalo

Bachelor of Applied Science (BASc), Computer Science and Engineering 2015 - 2018 Working on campus year round as an IT Consultant.

SUNY Polytechnic Institute

Bachelor of Applied Science (B.A.Sc.), Computer and Information Sciences, General 2013 - 2015

Skills

Microsoft SQL Server • Extract, Transform, Load (ETL) • C# • Software Development • ASP.NET • Big Data Analytics • Data Mining • Microsoft Azure • DevOps • Agile Methodologies

Honors & Awards

New York State Assembly Certificate of Merit - Assemblyman Anthony J. Brindisi Apr 2013

Recognition of accomplishments as a participant representing Frankfort-Schuyler High School as a member of the Cyber Patriot Team.

Congress of the United States Certificate of Merit - Congress of the United States Apr 2013

Recognition of participation in the 2013 Cyber Patriot competition. Commends skills and focus on science, technology, engineering, and math.

Congress of the United States Certificate of Merit - Congress of the United States Apr 2012

Recognition of participation in the 2012 Cyber Patriot competition. Commends skills and focus on science, technology, engineering, and math.